CANDIDATES FOR MAYOR

JOE MUSSELWHITE

Born in Warner Robins to two educators, Musselwhite graduated from Warner Robins High School and continued his education at the UGA Carl Vinson Institute for Government Functions/Management. Musselwhite has over 21 years of experience in leadership positions in city government in the departments of engineering, central receiving, street department, grounds and vehicle maintenance, and paint/sign shop. Amongst his most influential achievements working in city government, Musselwhite helped construct Wellston Trail, improved and replaced storm water pipes, installed sidewalks throughout the city, and assisted with site work at Macon State and the Little League facility. Musselwhite is passionate about citizens involvement in government and making Warner Robins a safer and cleaner city for people, property and pets.

CHARLES "CHUCK" SHAHEEN

Brought to Middle Georgia in 1964 by his father's military career, Shaheen is proud to call Warner Robins home and has served his community for over 25 years. Shaheen managed the business operations of his family's office supply store as it expanded throughout Middle Georgia. He graduated from Georgia Southern University in 1986 with a Bachelor's Degree in Business Administration and a minor in Marketing. Shaheen has served on Rotary, the Board of Directors for the Museum of Aviation and for the Chamber of Commerce. He has a deep understanding of business, fiscal responsibility, and the importance of Robins AFB. Shaheen has also had a successful career in the pharmaceutical industry where he developed a keen knowledge of healthcare. Shaheen previously served as Mayor of Warner Robins ('10 - '13) and served on council ('14 - present). He understands the importance of working together as a team to solve problems and plans to use this strong work ethic and God-given talents to promote the city of Warner Robins

RANDY TOMS (I)

Toms was born and raised in Warner Robins, where he serves as an active minister. He is a graduate of Northside High School and continued his education at Georgia Military College while working as a Fireman with the Warner Robins Fire Department, eventually earning the rank of Lieutenant. During his 27 year tenure as a Fireman, Toms worked with the Muscular Dystrophy Association as a key volunteer. In addition to serving his community, Toms is also a veteran of the U.S. Air Force and a former Houston County Superior Court Bailiff. As a native of Warner Robins, Toms decided he wanted to serve his city in a higher capacity by running for and being elected as Mayor of Warner Robins in December '13. Toms was officially sworn in as Mayor in January '14 and currently serves as Mayor of Warner Robins. He is also a published author of "Just a Fireman", a personal autobiography of his childhood and early career.
